

Southern Beauty

(Waltz-Song)

Words by ARTHUR J. LAMB

Music by G. VALISI

PRICE
25c

SOUTHERN BEAUTY

Words by Arthur J. Lamb.

WALTZ SONG.

Music by G. Valisi.

Intro.

Tempo di Valse.

risoluto. rall.

Fair is the rose — In the wreath the South is twin - - ing.

cantabile pp p cresc.

Soft the wind blows — Where the South-ern sun is shin - ing:

p cresc.

Hearts find re - pose — Where the fair - est flow'rs are pin - - ing:

p cresc.

Here life doth give — True love while you live.

ff

Con eleganza.

Molto cantabile.

When sun-set bars ——— Tell the days de-part-ing sto - - ry.

When jew-elled stars ——— Shine a-bove like gems of glo - ry.

I think of thee — Maiden dear-est, sweet-est near - est,

I think of thee Who art all to me —

Con sentimento.

Here maids are fair - - - est, Sweet - - est and rar - - est, Fin - - est, di - vin - - est, And the lov - li - est of all,

REFRAIN.

I sing to you Southern beau - - ty! Always so true to ff Con brio. f

du - - ty! With ev' - ry sweet charm la - - - den, ff f

Your fame shall live so long — Pure as the stars a - p

bove you, Ev' - ry true heart should love you, You

p

are a Queen o maid - en — Worth sweet - est song —

Fine.

LATEST PUBLICATIONS
FROM
G. VENTURINI

THE GREATEST ITALIAN MUSIC PUBLISHER

FLORENCE and ROME, ITALY

THE PIKE—Polka—Two-Step

THE FAIR—Waltz

SALUTE TO ST. LOUIS—
March—Two-Step

YES MY LOVE—Song

LIBERAL ARTS MARCH